introduction

Festival opens our exhibition year with a sense of renewal and openness. It brings together artists from different parts of the world, working across a wide range of mediums and approaches, and creates a space where diversity and curiosity lead the way.

The exhibition does not follow a single theme. Instead, it reflects the energy of making itself. Colors, gestures, techniques, and ideas exist side by side, allowing unexpected connections and quiet dialogues to emerge. Each work holds its own voice while contributing to a shared atmosphere of movement and possibility.

Festival invites slow exploration and personal discovery. It is a moment to look freely, to experience contrast and coexistence, and to enter a new creative cycle with attention, openness, and joy..
